This Association, being to their good Satisfaction apprized of y^e Promising qualifications of Mr. Daniel Brown of N. Haven for y^e work of y^e Ministry, and being satisfied of his Orderly Conversation, do hereby Signifie y^t they do Approve of his Exercising himself in Preaching y^e Gospel as God in his Providences shall call him therunto.

Signed p^r. Order of y^e Association

Samuel Whittelsey Scribe

Daniel Brown's authorization to preach as a Congregationalist. With Samuel Johnson and Timothy Cutler, in September, 1722, he declared for Episcopacy, sailed for England, and was ordered Priest by the Bishop of Norwich on March 31, 1723. He was appointed by the S.P.G. to take charge of Bristol, R. I. (a vacant mission there), but died of smallpox a week following his second ordination, on Easter even, and was buried in England.
